Train Everyone For War—Roosevelt

DEUNOUNCES COWBOYS WHILE A BANDIT RAID

GERMANS RENEW VIOLENT ATTACK

Teuton Infantry Obtains Footing in Small Post Opposite Hill No. 287.

Carries Fight For Thorough Preparedness Into Henry Ford's Own Town.

NATION MUST BE STRONG, HE SAYS

Colonel Expresses Opposition to Hyphenated Americanism.

SCHOOL CHILDREN GREET HIM

Later in the afternoon, Col. Roosevelt made a short address to a mass meeting in Grand Circuit park in the business district.

It was announced he expected to spend a few minutes visiting Henry Ford at the latter's automobile factory.

Col. Roosevelt prefaced his address by announcing that he had come here to Michigan because in the primary for the selection of delegates to the Republican national convention, Mr. Ford was victorious, and following on his victory, he showed a marked popular strength in Nebraska and Pennsylvania.

The effect of this showing has been immediately visible upon many of the politicians within and without Congress.

Have Not Prepared at All.

"We, through our representatives at Washington," said Col. Roosevelt, "have absolutely refused in the smallest degree to prepare during these 22 months of world-wide conflict, to make ready to learn the smallest part of the lesson being written in Europe. We have endeavored to deceive ourselves by announcing that in this policy of apathy, inaction and of failure to perform duty, we are actuated by the loftiest motives. I doubt whether we have really deceived ourselves, but certainly we have not deceived others.

Prepare Thoroughly.

"There is no use in saying that we will fight ourselves, but not much. Such a position is equivalent to announcing that if necessary we shall hit, but that we only shall hit softly.

The only right principle is to prepare thoroughly or not at all. The only right principle is to avoid hitting if it is possible to do so, but never, under any circumstances, to hit softly. To go to war a little, but not much, is the surest way to ensure disaster.

Have Wilson Administration.

Col. Roosevelt said that the Wilson administration "has taken no steps for preparedness, and has done nothing efficient to sustain our national flag."

"We must make this nation as strong as our convictions in reference to right and wrong," declared Col. Roosevelt, "it is little matter what our ideals must be and what achievements we may hope for, if these ideals and achievements cannot be reached by the use of considerable part of the strength of Mr. Ford in the primaries and of the strength of the administration of half-preparedness at the election of 1912, the fact that no real alternative of policy is offered with sincerity and fearlessness."

Force Universal Service.

In urging universal military service based on universal training, Col. Roosevelt said he believed in it because it would be not only of incalculable benefit to the nation in the event of war, but of incalculable benefit to the nation, as regards the work of peace.

Roosevelt asserted that "the extreme naval party in Germany has been advocated war with the United States on the ground that in the end, as the result of such a war, we would have to pay all the war expenditures of the German navy and their allies."

"These enormous sums would be raised by taxation on all our citizens," Col. Roosevelt said.

The War At a Glance

ALTHOUGH the Austrian offensive on the Italian front is meeting with stiffer resistance than at the outset, ground is still being wrested from Gen. Cadorna's forces, which, according to unofficial reports, have at points been pushed back as much as five miles.

The main line of attack is in the southern Tyrol, where the recent near approach of the Italians to Rovereto had threatened that place, a key position in the defense of Trent. The latest report from Vienna shows continued progress for the Austrians in the valleys southeast of Rovereto.

There has been notable fighting on the Verdun front, where the Germans have thrown fresh troops into the conflict and have obtained a footing in a small post near Hill 287, east of the Avonnet wood, according to the Paris bulletin.

The Berlin report on the Verdun fighting declares that French positions on both sides of the Haumont-Esne road were taken.

A report through Paris says a fleet of 150 transports has been assembled at Fiume to take troops, munitions and supplies to Durazzo on the Albanian coast.

The Berlin report on the Verdun fighting declares that French positions on both sides of the Haumont-Esne road were taken.

MISDEED OF SOLDIER'S DEATH NOT CLEARED IN ALL DETAILS

That He Wandered Over the Mexican Line Unwittingly Searching for Mules Is Established, But Whether Murdered or Shot After He Had Fired on Mexican Guards As Contended, Not Known.

YSTRY surrounds the death of sergeant Harry Furman, of the machine gun platoon of the 23rd infantry, whose body pierced by three bullet holes, was brought to the base hospital at El Paso, Thursday afternoon from a point near a small adobe house on the "island" between mountains one and two, in the lower section of El Paso, marking the international boundary line.

Although a number of theories have been advanced, it is generally believed that the young officer was shot down on the Mexican side of the line while he had unwittingly crossed while pursuing a number of mules that had escaped from the control of the machine gun platoon some time previous, and some in the direction of the international line.

The exact time of the shooting is unknown. As near as can be estimated the tragedy occurred about 10:15 morning of Thursday, the man had been in the direction of the machine gun platoon some time previous, and some in the direction of the international line.

Stafford E. Beckel, a line rider of the immigration service, heard shots in the direction of where Furman was killed, but as they were on the Mexican side of the boundary line, he did not stop to investigate.

In a press statement, indicating that he had been instantly killed, the body of the young officer was found by members of the hospital corps on their arrival at the scene of the tragedy.

Mexican Under Arrest.

A Mexican guard named Gallardo is under arrest in Juarez, pending investigation of the killing Thursday morning of Sgt. Harry Furman, machine gun company of the 23rd infantry. While several Mexican guards were present on the strip of land known as "the island" when the killing took place, they all assert that but one man did the shooting, and he is being held. The man asserts that when Sgt. Furman rode over the line into Mexican soil, he grasped the handle of the American's horse to stop him, whereupon the sergeant drew his revolver and began to fire. The Mexican says he shot in self defense. The revolver of the sergeant with two chambers discharged is offered in evidence.

The sergeant was out with the machine gun company at drill on a piece of land that adjoins a small piece of Mexican territory on the American side of the Rio Grande. When the mules of the command got away, he started in search of them and accidentally got over the line, it is presumed.

Was Not Drinking.

The first information of the Mexican officials on Thursday that the man had been drinking, is denied vehemently by the officers and comrades of the dead man.

barbed wire fence marks the boundary line at the point where the sergeant crossed, but the fence is said to be down in many places, so that the sergeant, it is said, easily have ridden across the line and into Mexico before he knew it. When encountered by the Mexican guards, he might easily have been shot.

GIVE APPROVAL TO ARBITRATION

Lake Mohonk Conference Adopts Platform Disappointing Taft and Bryan.

Lake Mohonk, N. Y., May 19.—The resolutions committee of the Lake Mohonk Conference on International Arbitration today showed its appreciation of the unsettled condition of international affairs by presenting a platform which avoided any radical recommendations and confined itself to carefully worded approval of the general principle of arbitration. The platform proved a disappointment to members of the League to Enforce Peace, headed by former president William H. Taft, presiding officer of the conference. But it also offered no encouragement to the opponents of arbitration, headed by Sen. Charles McNary, D., Ore.

The world conditions of the past two years have confirmed the belief, often expressed in these conferences, that arbitration and judicial methods to carefully worded approval of the general principle of arbitration. The platform proved a disappointment to members of the League to Enforce Peace, headed by former president William H. Taft, presiding officer of the conference. But it also offered no encouragement to the opponents of arbitration, headed by Sen. Charles McNary, D., Ore.
